

Missoula Healthy Indian Family Consortium

SAVE THE DATE!

The Missoula Healthy Indian Families Consortium Presents:
The 6th Annual Conference of Restoring the Circle of Care & Breaking the Cycle of Violence

This innovative conference is for professionals and community members who want to see better outcomes for Montana's Indian families.

Conference Topics Include:

- The Effects of Trauma and the Experiences of Combat on the Family & Other Special Topics in Honor of Veteran's Day
- Working with Men Who Have Been Effected by Trauma
- Domestic Violence in Indian Country
- Prevention: Healthy Youth for a Healthy Future
- Panel Discussion: Survivors and Service Providers—What Worked, What to Change

Restoring the Circle of Care & Breaking the Cycle of Violence

NOVEMBER 10th & 11th 2011

Double Tree, Edgewater
100 Madison St.—Missoula, MT

- $75 (Includes lunch both days)
- Pre-registration required
- CEUs will be offered
- Group discount
- Scholarships may be available
- Final Day To Register: October 31, 2011

For more information and registration visit:
www.mhifc.org or contact Emily Salois at:
(406) 251-4449 or emilymatt@bresnen.net